

Nick Timothy MP for West Suffolk

REPORTS
BACK
TO YOU

The Friends of Brandon Station group does an invaluable job looking out for and protecting the town's grade two listed station building which was built nearly two hundred years ago. Unfortunately, it has been repeatedly threatened with demolition. I am a big supporter of the group, and met its members recently. They have my full backing as they work on a solution to restore the building.

